Consent to Treatment Most people who participate in behavioral or mental health treatment benefit from it. Like most kinds of healthcare, this kind of treatment requires a very active effort on the individual's part. In addition, there may be certain kinds of risks involved. For example, the counseling process can be challenging and sometimes may involve experiencing some uncomfortable feelings, or engaging in difficult interactions, or facing difficult aspects of your life. Nevertheless, most people find the benefits outweigh any such risks.

It is important that the individual participates in this treatment willingly. If you have any questions or concerns about this document, about the services being provided, or about the treatment options, please feel free to ask questions.

Termination of Therapy

Therapist reserves the right to terminate therapy at his/her discretion. Reasons for termination include, but are not limited to, untimely payment of fees, failure to comply with treatment recommendations, conflicts of interest, failure to participate in therapy, Patient needs are outside the Therapist's scope of practice or competence, or Patient is not making adequate progress in therapy. Patient has the right to terminate therapy at his/her discretion. Upon either party's decision to terminate therapy, Therapist will generally recommend that Patient participate in one or more termination sessions. These sessions are intended to facilitate a positive termination experience and give both parties an opportunity to reflect on the work that has been done. Therapist will also attempt to ensure a smooth transition to another therapist by offering referrals when appropriate.

By signing this agreement, I acknowledge that I have read this agreement, understood its terms, agree to be subject to its provisions, and voluntarily agree to the participation in the treatment.
